THE TWIN BROTHERS INTERVIEWING EACH OTHER IS THE WEDDING COMING?

EDITOR'S LETTER

A HOME FOR EVERYONE

518 has always been very welcoming to new players, a good and safe home

Hello, bitches ... I mean, buddies!

Yes, our family is growing with new and good friends. Valuable players with great principles.

People we've wanted to play with for a long time and who deserve a warm welcome. Let's get to know each other well and integrate.

In addition to the whole adaptation period, we have that natural clash of "cultures", ways of playing and looking at the game. All of this is normal and expected.

The important thing is to keep our hearts and minds open and be patient.

We already know which map we'll play on. But no matter which map it is, and which enemy we'll face ... we'll do our best. We're already looking forward to good fights.

We're now going through a process of integrating the entire team. This is the most important part of these next two weeks.

Our experience curve as a team, our performance, drops a bit and we'll need everyone's effort to recover during this period.

And so we will reach the decisive moments of GW strong, united, integrated, competitive and crazy for a good fight!!!! HUH!

BAND OF BROTHERS

THE “FLIRTING”

This relationship between The Union and TAB is not new.

And if you thought that the initial flirting started with TS and Raven, you are wrong. It was Fabi who flirted with TS.

And whenever Raven was asked, she would say: "I don't know anything, TS and TAB will do what TS and TAB want".

Fabi, The Union's Recruitment & Partnerships Coordinator, has been talking to TAB's leadership for a long time.

Different phases of the game did not allow us to be together.

And he has always looked for teams with the same principles and mentality as ours: "in a nutshell, we are always looking for players who are fighters, active, play for the team, understand the importance of family, a good atmosphere and always seek to improve themselves".

MERGING PROCESS

The Union has a very solid organization and structure. It lives for the city and the city lives for The Union.

Just as it is warm and loyal to those who want to be with us and play together. And it will do everything it can to make the relationship work, so that in time everyone can be perfectly integrated and happy.

The beginning is a bit difficult, due to the difference in styles, but everything is sorted out with care and affection.

SO FAR EVERYTHING IS GOING WELL AND I REALLY LIKE THE ORGANIZATION, I AM HAPPY THAT 'THE UNION' VALUES PEOPLE

NOORA (ANGEL OF SPARTA)

Noora (ANGEL OF SPARTA) sees this beginning in a positive light: "this merger is very good, and everything is going well so far". She even talks about Fabi, the biggest nerd on the team: "he is very careful and that is very good".

Finally someone praises him 😂

DOUBLE INTERVIEW WITH THE TWINS

FABIFREIRE (THE GOOD TWIN)

why do i have to interview MH? he will insult me somehow, like always, and we'll end up fighting

OLD MAN DWIM

no he won't, he promised me ... you are two opposite sides of the same coin, so find a way to get along hmm, ok ... MH, you are our CALLER. could you explain what the CALLER does during a fight?

FABIFREIRE (THE GOOD TWIN)

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

duh? just kidding, ok, ok, I explain: the CALLER is the one to organize the fights (raids and defenses) in a specific situation, like neutral buildings, arsenals or fighting in towers

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

he is also the one who is assigned to one of our raid leaders (RL), to make the calls of the troops and the formation for every attack or defense

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

so he defines, together with the RL, which is the best troops proportion, formation, gear and enforcers for the fight ... and he is the one informing all the members how to fill the raid

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

which troops to send, when to join and when everyone should switch troops

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

also, I stay in a voice channel with the RL sending the instructions for defense, so we switch fast the defensive formation and what's the basic procedure when joining a fight, when the CALLER makes the call?

FABIFREIRE (THE GOOD TWIN)

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

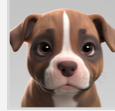

it's simple:
+ 1 bruiser
+ luxury car (not the mortar car)
+ 100k troops in the proportion requested

ALWAYS SEND 1 BRUISER WHEN JOINING A RAID, SO YOUR OPPONENT WON'T KNOW WHICH TROOPS YOU ARE SENDING TO THE RAID

WE HAVE FIGHTERS INSIDE TU. SO WE HAVE A LOT OF FILLERS ... SEND 100K TROOPS WHEN JOINING A RAID OR A BUILDING DEFENSE SO YOU DON'T LOOSE SO MANY TROOPS

FABIFREIRE (THE GOOD TWIN)

any message to our members? after that, you can ask me questions

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

yes, just KEEP THE CHAT QUIET during fights ... no need to keep talking or posting locations

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

my turn: you are our recruitment and partnerships coordinator, so how would you describe 518 and The Union team to a new player?

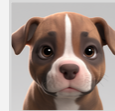

FABIFREIRE (THE GOOD TWIN)

TU and 518 are one big family ... we take cooperation and mutual support to the next level, the whole city is filled with great people and everyone gets along exceptionally well

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

a TAB partner faction, Rls, has arrived in town and has had a tough time in 529 ... what can Rls members expect from 518 and our family?

FABIFREIRE (THE GOOD TWIN)

518 and The Union is one big family, Rls is now a part of that and they can expect good will and support from every faction in 518

FABIFREIRE (THE GOOD TWIN)

we understand the difficult situation they were in as well as the relationships with previously TAB, we did not hesitate offering them a home for that reason

MAD HATTER (THE EVIL TWIN)

last question and we finish the interview: why do you still live with your m ...
